BOYS' BASKETBALL

With two new transfers the Cardinal Team had an exciting year. Inexperience was a factor but the Cardinal team was still a surprise to many of their opponents. The Cardinals ended their season with a 9-12 win-loss record. At the end of the season the Cardinals placed 2nd in District III which took them to play in Region I.

BOYS' & GIRLS' TRACK

TRACK

The season was filled with work for both the boys and the girls and at times it didn't all seem worth it because of much bad weather. The track meets were held in snow and cold weather.

The work of running, practicing exchanges, and giving up many of their Saturdays paid off for a few of the tracksters who qualified for state.

ARTS

Band is Serious business!!!

Senior High Band

Ellendale High School had a fun year and busy year. They played for EOE and the Christmas, winter, and spring concerts. With all the work that the band put into contests it was a disappointment that they were cancelled. Oh well, we'll do great next year.

SWING CHOIR AND STAGEBAND

The swing choir and stageband ended the year on a good note! Both did a super job in all performances. Swing choir looked ever-so-sharp in their new uniforms and stageband sounded just as great as ever. Mr. Smith and Mr. Klinkhammer worked very hard. Thanks for everything!

CHOIR & CONTESTS

The high school choir performed with an astonishing sixty-four musicians. You'd think with so many people it would be hard to accomplish anything, but they were all such "angels" they could hardly go wrong. The choir had fun performing at many events minus our annual district large group contests. Thanks for a great performance!

Amy, Lauri, and Keri received district stars on instrumental solos and a state honorable mention.

Saxophone ensemble received a district and state star!

Clarinet ensemble earned a district and state star.

Our hardworking "happy" director.

Flute duet received a district star and state satisfactory.

Jr. High Music

The 8th grade students worked real hard to put on their musical this year, while the 7th grade worked hard for all their concerts. All in all it was a super year for the Jr. High.

REDBIRD

This year's annual staff was very dedicated. It took a lot of work to put the book together.

Sometimes it didn't seem possible but with the help of Mrs. Kuck, a very cooperative Hardin's Photography, and Taylor Publishing Company it got done. There was a lot of typing, captions, and designing of pages that was done over the school year.

Usually it is hard to get the freshmen involved with things but they definitely showed they could pull their weight on the annual staff. Christy Klipfel did a lot of the work for them. She was not only a photographer, but also designed many pages.

Jim Flynn — Business Mgr., Vicky Hartman — Editor, Linda Kuck — Advisor, Jeanne Eberle & Krysti Betting — Jr. Editors.

THE "CARDINAL"

The Carnival Staff was only able to get out two newspapers this past year but when they did come out, they were full of the exciting events happening within E.H.S. Some of the things that they covered were sports, prom, homecoming, music contests and concerts, senior interviews, and senior wills.

ACTIVITIES

F.H.A.

F.H.A. was very busy even though they didn't carry out all of their planned activities. Some of the activities they did participate in were a family fun potluck, installation of new officers, speaker Bill Sanders, and a dance class before Homecoming. They also sold Carnations on Valentine's Day which was a big hit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council became a very active group this year. Among their activities were the painting of rooms in the high school, revising their constitution, supporting and contributing money to hear Bill Sanders speak, and increasing the amount of school spirit. President Michelle Elhard did an excellent job on showing her leadership.

The National Honor Society lost a few members because of graduation but it also gained a few members on awards night. Becoming a member of this society is an honor that is not just given to a student but rather earned by showing leadership and maintaining a 3.5 grade point average. Lynne Carlson, Jill Tatum, Michelle Horan, Michelle Pahl, Scott Alger, Leslie Hehr, Chuck Nicolai, and Amy Shuert showed their leadership abilities and earned their place on the society.

1986 PROM

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on April 26, 1986. Mr. Shawn Flaherty returned as the guest for the banquet. The menu consisted of salisbury steak and gravy over potatoes with corn and dessert. This year the banquet was held at the Ranch supper club. Linda Eck and Jim Gerling sang our theme song "Cherish." Dancing couples enjoyed the music by the "Crystal Sunshine" band. Colors of the Prom were dark blue, light and dark purple, and silver. The Prom was successful and enjoyed by everyone.
